RE: Draft 2008 Northeast Coordinated Electric System Plan Posted for Stakeholder Review

ISO New England, in coordination with NYISO and PJM, has posted a first draft of the 2008 Northeast Coordinated Electric System Plan (NCSP) for review by the Inter-Area Planning Stakeholder Advisory Committee (IPSAC). This first draft presents the results of several cross-border studies affecting reliability issues throughout the NPCC region.

The draft NCSP is available for download at: http://www.iso-ne.com/committees/comm_wkgrps/other/ipsac/mtrls/2009/jan302009/index.html. If you have any issues with accessing the NCSP report, please contact ISO New England Customer Service Department at 413-540-4220 or custserv@iso-ne.com.

The Joint ISO/RTO Planning Committee (JIPC) is looking for stakeholder feedback on this document. Please send any comments or edits to iso@npcc.org and PACMatters@iso-ne.com by 12:00pm on January 23.

IPSAC WebEx Conference

Once all comments have been received, the JIPC will host a WebEx conference call to discuss this feedback with stakeholders. This WebEx session is scheduled for 9am to 12pm on January 30. The information for that call is as follows:

Dial in: 866-280-1753

Meeting code: 51835604

WebEx link: <https://nyiso.webex.com/mw03051/mywebex/default.do?siteurl=nyiso>

Although there is no charge, registration is required for this conference call to ensure enough lines are available for all parties. To register, please contact Debbie Eckels by email at deckels@nyiso.com or by phone at 518-356-6009.
